How to get there from Mannheim Central Station:

Exit the central station and turn left. Walk past the Intercity Hotel entering Schloßgartenstraße. Follow the street, walk past the ZEW and go straight on until you cross the tram line just before the Mannheim Palace. Make a sharp right turn, follow Otto-Selz-Straße and turn left as soon as you reach the front side of the Palace.

Enter the building through the main entrance:

The Fuchs-Petrolub-Festsaal (O 138) is located directly above the main entrance. So once you are inside go straight, then up the stairs and turn around to take some more stairs up.
